Event announcement:

The "2022 The Road to Taiwan KOM-Summer" will be held on September 2 (Friday) this week. Due to the formation of typhoon "Xuan Lannuo" and other factors, please pay special attention to the following instructions.

1. If the Central Weather Bureau issues an offshore typhoon warning before the event started, the event will be cancelled. If the cancellation is made, the relevant matters will be announced separately.
2. If the activity starts as usual and the weather goes bad, the activity may end in front of the Bilui Sacred Tree.
3. Please follow the guidance of the commanding staff and pass carefully when passing through the constructing area at Guanyuan section on the event day.
4. If the participant does not plan to go to Hualien to participate in the typhoon factor, please fill in the cancellation application form before 9:30 tomorrow morning. The TCF will send materials - waterproof backpacks, commemorative shirts, completion medals and other materials, and refund the chip deposit of 500 NTD and the registration fee of 500 NTD, a total of 1,000 NTD.
