

Tour of East Taiwan Announcement

Due to the severe disaster in Hualien caused by the strong earthquake occurred on April 3rd, in order not to affect the disaster relief and social resources, the originally scheduled Tour of East Taiwan event on April 12-14 will be postponed to September 20-22th. We apologize for the inconvenience caused.

Participants who originally registered can directly reserve their entries to September 20-22th, as well as the hotel and transportation ordered when registering this event. For participants who aren't available to attend the event due to the postponement, please fill out the "Refund Application Form" by May 20th.

After we receive your form, we will send the souvenirs and supplies to the address filled out in the form. An amount of $1,000 NTD for the manufactured souvenirs, including the T-shirts, bicycle caps and two completion medals, will be deducted from the registration fee. The chip deposit and the fee of transportation and accommodation ordered from us will be fully refunded.

We regret the inconvenience caused from the severe earthquake. For any questions, please let us know. Thank you for your patience.
